

HALLOWEEN

Alter-egos were in fine form this Halloween season. Batman, Casper and Kermit were all ready to hang loose with the Kahuna and spread some trick-o-treats. Sign designs are not the only artistic avenue for all the creative juices that flow through this office... the pumpkin carvers also surface this time of year. If there is any mass demand for pumpkin carvers out there, we're ready for you... check out this years "Jacks"

EMPLOYEE SPOTLIGHT

Aubrey is our newest member of the BMA team. She joins Angie on Purple team. Aubrey has had 6 years experience in the sign industry. She started out as a glass blower and went on to drafting and sales. Her bag of tricks include surveying, permitting, applying vinyl, trim cap, routing faces and installations. She has a BA in Design Studies with an emphasis in Graphic Design and a minor in Studio Art. She enjoys softball, kayaking and making neon sculptures. She is a bundle of energy and a great addition to the BMA family.

UP COMING EVENTS
